

Recommendation from the District Dues/Fees for 2022 Floor Committee

Subject: to continue the due/fee of $50 per called worker into the next convention and appoint an ad hoc committee to study the growing expenses of the Western Wisconsin District in the care of called workers.

Whereas (1): The Western Wisconsin District (WWD) dues have not been changed or analyzed in decades, and

Whereas (2): the costs of doing all WWD business and correspondence will continue go up with inflation, and

Whereas (3): the use of WWD dues is also the primary source for called worker care in the MAP program, and

Whereas (4): the cost of each MAP program session is increasing to $85 this year along with an ever-increasing use of the WWD MAP sessions by called workers, therefore be it

Resolved (1): that the WWD convention approve the recommended one time due/fee of $50 for each male called worker to continue until the next convention, and be it further

Resolved (2): that the WWD appoint an ad hoc committee to further study the issue of the rising costs to the district; be it further

Resolved (3): that the newly appointed Dues/ Fees ad hoc committee follow the work of the circuit pastor recommendation and that the soon to be appointed ad hoc committee “consider proactive approaches to care for the mental health needs of our district’s called workers and their families”, be it finally

Resolved (4): that the Dues/Fees ad hoc committee prepare a detailed report on finances and a proactive schedule to cover the rising cost of convention business and the care of the WWD called workers through the MAP program.
